Course Description & Objectives:

This course will explore how culture influences how we think, feel and behave. The relationships between culture and psychology are both complex and profound. We will examine how many psychological processes that were once considered human universals actually vary importantly across cultures. Upon successful completion of the course, the student should be able to perform the following tasks based on the course learning objectives:

- 1) To compare and contrast various theories and methods in the field of cross-cultural psychology and to apply them in various contexts
- 2) To distinguish, explain and interpret the effects of culture on human thinking, values, and behavior
- 3) To read and analyze published literature in cross-cultural psychology

Note: This course is recognized as a PACS Content Course that fulfills requirements in the interdisciplinary Peace and Conflict Studies plan. For information about doing a PACS concentration (Major, Minor or Option) visit:

Course Requirements:

1) Tests (2 tests, each worth 20%, total 40%):

You will take two midterm tests during the semester. The tests will cover material presented in lectures and the weekly readings. Midterm tests are not cumulative.

2) Final Exam (35%)

The final exam will cover all lectures and the textbook after the second midterm. The final exam is not cumulative.

3) Application paper (25%, Due date: Thursday, November 28th)

For this assignment, you will apply theories or concepts in cross-cultural psychology to an example from the media or your experience. You are not allowed to use the same examples that were presented in class or in the readings. Scan and attach the original material (e.g., magazine, advertisements, news stories etc...) to your paper or provide enough background information for the example. Submit the paper to the electronic drop box on D2L before class. Please follow the guidelines on this assignment posted on the website (e.g., use of primary sources). Late submissions will be dealt on a case by case basis. In cases of severe illness or extreme circumstances, the student must contact the instructor as soon as possible.

Final Examination Policy

For Fall 2013, the established examination period is Dec.5-20, 2013. The schedule will be available in October. Students should be aware that student travel plans are not acceptable grounds for granting an alternative final examination time (see: <http://www.registrar.uwaterloo.ca/exams/finalexams.html>).

Accommodation for Illness or Unforeseen Circumstances:

The instructor follows the practices of the University of Waterloo in accommodating students who have documented reasons for missing quizzes or exams. See http://www.registrar.uwaterloo.ca/students/accom_illness.html

Academic Integrity:

Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline, <http://uwaterloo.ca/secretariat/policies-procedures-guidelines/policy-71>.

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4, <http://uwaterloo.ca/secretariat/policies-procedures-guidelines/policy-70>. In addition, consult <http://arts.uwaterloo.ca/student-grievances-faculty-arts-processes> for the Faculty of Arts’ grievance processes.

Appeals: A student may appeal the finding and/or penalty in a decision made under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than regarding a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline if a ground for an appeal can be established. Read Policy 72 - Student Appeals, <http://uwaterloo.ca/secretariat/policies-procedures-guidelines/policy-72>.

Academic Integrity website (Arts): http://arts.uwaterloo.ca/arts/ugrad/academic_responsibility.html

Academic Integrity Office (uWaterloo): <http://uwaterloo.ca/academic-integrity/>

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities:

Note for students with disabilities: The AccessAbility Services (AS) Office, located in Needles Hall, Room 1132, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS Office at the beginning of each academic term.

Cross-listed course:

Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which rubric it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science rubric.
